Operative Nailing Course

3rd & 4th
June 2016

Venue

HBT Medical College & Dr R N Cooper Municipal Hospital, Juhu, Mumbai

Seasons greetings,

Encouraged by the stupendous response to ONC 2015, it gives us immense pleasure to announce that the Dept of Orthopaedics, Dr R N Cooper Municipal Medical College and Hospital in association with Association of Trauma Surgeons of India would be arranging Operative Nailing Course 2016 on the 3rd & 4th of June.

The venue would be Dr. R N Cooper Hospital, Juhu, Mumbai.

During these two days, we propose to conduct live demonstrations of intramedullary fixations of long bones with elaborate discussions on day to day technical problems faced by all of us with masters in the field.

We also propose to include challenging cases like intramedullary infected implants, broken implants, exchange nailings etc which never cease to be a nightmare.

We assure you that we will leave no stone unturned to make this course a learning extravaganza for all of us...
